This document provides a summary of the key information relating to this insurance policy. Complete pre-contractual and contractual information on the product is provided in the full policy documentation.

What is this type of Insurance?

This is an Excess Protection insurance policy which during the period of cover in the event of valid motor insurance claim(s) will pay the excess payable.

What is Insured?

- ✓ In the event of a valid motor insurance claim we will pay the excess payable under that claim, for the below events, up to a maximum of £750 during the period of cover.
- ✓ The excess payable on a settled motor insurance claim where you are unable to recover your excess from a third party and are therefore at fault.
- ✓ The excess payable, in the event your motor insurer deems the motor insurance claim not your fault and you are unable to recover your excess from the third party within 6 months of the claim being settled.

What is not Insured?

- ✗ Any amount over and above the maximum claim limit of £750 in the period of cover.
- ✗ Any excess in respect of glass damage or key excess.
- ✗ Any claim where the excess has been waived or where a third party has reimbursed you or made good any loss or damage in respect of which you have or would otherwise have claimed against your motor insurance policy.
- ✗ Any claim which occurs whilst the insured vehicle is being used and/or driven off road, on any race track, circuit or other prepared course.
- ✗ Any claim which has occurred within a country which is not covered by your motor insurance policy.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! The maximum claim limit of £750 during the period of cover.

Where am I covered?

- ✓ UK, Channel Islands and Isle of Man.
- ✓ Europe if cover on the motor insurance policy has been extended.

What are my obligations?

- At the start of the contract the information you provide must be true and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief and you must tell us if anything changes later.
- You must provide complete and accurate answers to any questions asked.
- You must pay the premium on time.
- If you need to make a claim you must inform us as soon as possible and follow the claims procedure and provide, at your own expense, all the information requested.
- You must not act in a fraudulent way or make a claim for any loss or damage that you caused deliberately or was caused with your knowledge.
- You must, at our cost, help us to take legal action against anyone or help us defend any legal action if we ask you to.

When and how do I pay?

- You can usually pay your premium as a one-off payment or in monthly instalments. You will need to contact your Insurance intermediary for full details.

When does the cover start and end?

This policy will run concurrently with your motor insurance policy for a maximum of 12 months from the start date shown on your schedule, unless it is cancelled by us or you before then. If your motor insurance policy is cancelled all cover under this policy will also end.

How do I cancel the contract?

If you decide to cancel your Private Car Excess Protection policy, you must contact your insurance intermediary you purchased this policy through:

Your right to cancel in the cooling off period

If this is within the first 14 days from the day of purchase or the day on which you receive your policy documentation, whichever is the later ('cooling off period'), you will be entitled to a full refund of the premium as long as you have not made a claim and do not intend to make a claim on the policy.

Your right to cancel after the cooling off period

After the first 14 days no refund of premium will be payable.
